ARTICLE I – SERVICES

All E.S.F. Ax Trois Domaines instructors have received training validated by the French State and possess currently valid authorisation to teach skiing and associated disciplines. Instruction shall be implemented according to the French Ski Method (Méthode du Ski Français), codified by the French Ski Instruction Handbook (Mémento de l'enseignement du Ski Français), published by the French Sports Ministry and recognised nationally and internationally. This instruction may take place in all environments and on all types of snow appropriate for acquiring the skills covered by the Handbook.

The services are dispensed individually or in groups. The smooth running of lessons presupposes a uniform skills level of the skiers under instruction. On account of the material impossibility for E.S.F. Ax Trois Domaines instructors to check the level of each pupil prior to registration, the pupils themselves are responsible for choosing their technical level, selected with reference to the grid drawn up by the E.S.F.

Accordingly, the E.S.F. Ax Trois Domaines reserves the right to transfer skiers to groups more suitable to their actual skills level, when this does not match their declared level, subject to other groups' capacity to incorporate them. Skiers may not claim any refund or compensation on account of this, which is a consequence of the skier's personal declaration.

Learning to ski takes place in a specific environment with random characteristics. Its practice therefore makes it incumbent on customers and/or pupils to take personal responsibility for their own safety and the safety of others. The instructor's liability is therefore limited to a best-efforts obligation.

It is the responsibility of the customer and/or pupil to follow the instructor's instructions. Before the lesson's beginning the customer and/or pupil must have his lesson card.

ARTICLE II – LIABILITY OF INSTRUCTORS

Learning to ski takes place in a specific environment with random characteristics. Its practice therefore makes it incumbent on pupils to take personal responsibility for their own safety and the safety of others. The instructor's liability is therefore limited to a best-efforts obligation. It is the responsibility of the pupil to follow the instructor's instructions. Pupils are solely responsible for their own equipment.

The E.S.F. Ax Trois Domaines shall not be held liable for any accidents caused by skiers taking part in lessons.

ARTICLE III – INSURANCE

The service provider subscribes to Professional Civil Liability insurance that covers the instructors in the exercise of their duties against claims from third parties and the practitioners during the time that they are under the authority of the E.S.F. Ax Trois Domaines and the instructor.

Customers and/or pupils shall be solely responsible for their own equipment. The instructors shall not be held liable for any damage caused by this equipment or in the event of loss of or damage to this equipment.
